

New Spring Merchandise

We have been very busy for the past two weeks, marking off new spring merchandise, and assure you that our stock is now at its best. We are bound to get warm weather in April and all will be glad to lay aside their winter clothing and wear the NEW SPRING STYLES.

Womens' Spring Suits, $15 to $35

No longer does the woman who seeks exclusiveness wait until the new season has well advanced before she buys a suit, for well she knows that many of the most attractive models cannot be duplicated later. Such charm and variety in the suits shown here at prices ranging from $15 to $35. Women are favored this year as never before.

Misses' and Junior Spring Suits, $12.50 to $18.00

Beautifully tailored, of fine serge, black, blue and all the popular spring shades. Sensible, youthful styles—appealing instantly to mothers of girls whose winter suits are growing shabby. (Misses' sizes, 14, 16, 18, 20. Junior sizes, 13, 15, 17.)

MISS NELSON

Wishes the ladies of Barre to consider these facts: Miss Nelson's Millinery Parlors are located at 200 No. Main St., up one flight. This makes her rent for the year less than the rent for two months for a street floor store. This difference of expense makes it possible for Miss Nelson to sell her millinery ten per cent cheaper.

Miss Nelson's styles are correct and the latest importations arrive twice a week.

Adolfo Comoli, manager of the Italian Independent baseball club, is completing his schedule for the coming season. It is expected that one of the strongest amateur teams in the city will be turned out, as there is much material.

Now uniforms for the members have recently been received as well as other equipment.

Over thirty members of the degree staff of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, No. 18, were charmingly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Philbrick of Orange street last evening. During the earlier hours of the evening, the time was devoted to sociability, games and other diversions being in order.

Before leaving, the guests were again reminded of the hospitality of their hosts by the serving of new maple sugar on snow. Mrs. Philbrick is the noble grand of the lodge.

While we do not claim that we are the best, we do feel that we are to give the public of Barre, Montpelier and vicinity, something new and novel in the line of minstrelsy. All the necessary requisites that go to make a good minstrel show, we have them.

From beginning to end we promise to give you the very latest in music, songs, jokes, etc. Remember that this is strictly local talent, of which has been selected the very best soloists and funny men that could be procured. We solicit your patronage knowing that we guarantee a high-class refined minstrel performance. The date is April 6 and 7, at the Barre opera house, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Dokeys.
